Creative Teaching Strategies

Teacher: Collaborative

Description: When teaching the Bible the truth of what the text says is always the most important consideration. But after the truth has been discerned, presenting that truth in creative ways—ways that do justice to the beauty of Scripture—immediately rises in terms of priorities. This is a collaborative class focused on building creative instincts in teaching the Bible (or anything else for that matter).

Evangelism: Biblical Principles; Faithful Application

Teacher: Tom Clothier

Description: A class that centers on the biblical command to evangelize while not losing sight of the practical ball in the hypothetical weeds.

Habakkuk: Learning to Live by Faith (WOMENS STUDY)

Teacher: Christine Overholt

Description: From Habakkuk the prophet we learn that when God's ways don't seem to make sense, it's only because we can't see the end from the beginning, and because in this lifetime we get only a beginning glimpse of the magnitude of all God is. We also learn from Habakkuk what to do in seasons of waiting. Habakkuk also shows us that God is faithful to deliver his people—including us—from every trouble in his own way and time. Will we trust? If so, we will also wait, and we will prove in our own lives that God is worth waiting for. More info at www.lydiabrownback.com/flourish-series

Cost: $5 (Please pay with registration or at first class. Church will bulk order books.)

Prayer Meeting

Teacher: Collaborative

Description: A weekly gathering to focus prayer on a specific topic. This is not a gathering for prayer requests but rather a time of corporate prayer that narrows in on topics pertinent to the ministry of Headwaters Church.

Personal Self-Defense

Teacher: Dave Watts

Description: A clear and interactive approach to self-defense. Gain confidence in your personal safety as well as physical capability.

Christianity's Starting 5 (+1)

This class does not start until MARCH 8th

Teacher: Luke Suciu

Description: A look at the 5 (+1) most influential Christian thinkers post-Apostle Paul. A proverbial starting five (plus the first man off the bench) in terms of Christian influence. Each week will focus on a different theologian that has had an outsized impact on Christian thinking and doctrine.

A Real Man Leads with Love

1 Corinthians 13

In a sense, love makes a man a Christian man (1 Jn 4:16). All that we do is to be done in love (1 Cor. 16:14). And without love, says the Bible, we are nothing (1 Cor. 13:2).

Any man who has committed himself to love knows just how hard love can be. Love is easily misunderstood, misplaced, and misapplied. The apostle Paul certainly saw and felt the hurdles himself, as well as how easily love can wither in relationships. His first letter to the church at Corinth addresses a host of serious issues, but perhaps none is weightier than their lack of love. First Corinthians 13 - "the love chapter"—was written to challenge and help them and us, especially as Christian men, to learn how to successfully live and lead with love.

Men, come join us as we learn what it means to lead with love.

New Year's Emphasis 2023

New Year's Emphasis: Discover Church

In days of Headwaters' past, we would begin our year with a New Year's Emphasis: a sermon series and corresponding church wide study on a specific topic. This year we are going to give the first five weeks of our calendar year to the doctrine of the Church.

The lasting effects of the Covid pandemic continue to ripple through churches as well as society at large. Many people have reconsidered their relationship to church. Is it necessary? Should it be this hard? Can't I just have a personal relationship with Jesus? In short, if you or anyone else had an underlying question about the purpose and place of church in their life, the last few years brought that question to the surface.

What we find when we turn to the Bible is perhaps surprising:

Not only is Church necessary, it is supposed to be hard. The New Testament vision of Church asks a lot of those who are in Christ. Christians are called to continual self-sacrifice, purposeful fellowship, intentional presence, surprising generosity, ongoing service, and a litany of other things. If you're doing church correctly it is going to be hard, because it will ask a lot of you.

Starting January 8th we will spend five weeks collectively focusing on the integral instruction from the New Testament on the beautiful and difficult reality of the local church. Whether you are unwaveringly committed to the local church or already have one foot over the fence ready to fun away from the church forever, we invite you to come and Discover Church. ■
